

Ken Bibby
ACMG Ski Guide

Ken is a certified ACMG Ski Guide as well as Backpacking and Assistant Rock Guide and professional member of the CAA. He is the assistant manager at Last Frontier Heli Skiing, teaches for the Canadian Avalanche Association and sits on the CAA/CAC board of directors as the Director of the Membership Committee. This will be Ken's 10th season guiding. He started ski tour guiding at Purcell Lodge in 1999. Since then, he's done a combination of ski touring, heli ski and cat ski work. Ken has been working at Powder Creek since 2002, first as an Assistant Ski Guide and now as a full Ski Guide. He lives in Smithers with his wife, Kim van den Eerenbeemt, and 3 young boys, and is currently enrolled in the VanBibby School of parenting.
