

Marc Deschenes
Head Powder Creek Guide, ACMG Ski Guide

Marc is a certified ACMG Ski Guide and professional member and instructor of the CAA. He started his guiding career over 18 years ago and has worked for various helicopter, and snowcat skiing operations as well as guiding at several backcountry ski lodge throughout BC. He's been part of the Powder Creek crew since the beginning 10 years ago. Marc also spends his season teaching professional and recreational avalanche safety training courses, and also works as an avalanche safety consultant. He lives in Nelson with his wife and has recently become a father, totally enjoying raising his 3 year old boy and 8 mo. daughter.